

Washington, DC- Congressman Steve King released the following statement after hosting the Grand Opening for his new Fort Dodge office:

Congressman King cuts the ribbon to mark the opening of the Fort Dodge office in the Fourth District.

"Opening the Fort Dodge office today fulfilled a vision that was many months in the making," said King. "My district staff is ready to assist constituents, because I want Fourth District Iowans to have access to the information and resources they need. I look forward to using the Fort Dodge office, and the other Fourth District offices, to make that happen."
